

NEILL PUBLIC LIBRARY

Happiness Is...A Family Storytime Celebration

Young children of all ages and their families are invited to Family Storytime with Miss Elyse on

Tuesday, January 24, 6:30-7:00 p.m. at Neill Public Library

Why are we so HAPPY about this special night?

It's a night of wonderful books and songs!

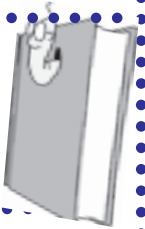

It's a night with great prizes for every child attending storytime!

It's the perfect time to wear your PAJAMAS at the library!

Pre-registration is not required. Join us for all kinds of pajama happiness and fun.

For more information call Children's Assistant, Elyse Cregar at (509) 338-3258.

The Youth Services Department at Neill Public Library continues to provide year-round, free, ongoing programs for all children and youth of all ages. From a monthly teen book discussion group and weekly storytimes for preschoolers and two year olds to lap-sit programs for babies, there's something for everyone. Join us! Make new friends, enjoy new books and discover many wonderful things to explore at YOUR library! Pre-registration is not necessary. For more information, contact Kathleen Ahern, Children's Librarian at 338-3258 or kathleen@neill-lib.org.
